

2020-2021 Grad PLUS Loan Steps

1

Apply after April 1, 2020.

Login with your FSA ID.

2

Go to studentloans.gov.

1. Under "Graduate/Professional Students", select "Apply for a PLUS Loan".
2. Award Year: 2020-2021
(typical loan period is Aug 2020 to May 2021)
3. Loan Amount: refer to the "Alternative Loan Eligibility" line on your Award Letter PDF. Select "max" or specify an amount.

Remember: carefully calculate how much funding you need for the academic year. You may increase or reduce the amount later, prior to disbursement. The total amount requested will be divided equally between Fall and Spring semesters.

3

First time borrower?

Complete the following:

- Graduate PLUS Master Promissory Note (MPN)
- Graduate PLUS Entrance Counseling

Note: Funds will not be disbursed until these documents are completed.

4

Loan Origination Fee: 4.236%

This percentage is deducted from every disbursement. If you want this origination fee added to the net amount of your loan request, send an email to lawfa@seattleu.edu.

5

Endorser required or successful appeal?

You will need to complete PLUS Counseling (a separate and additional requirement to Grad PLUS Entrance Counseling. See studentloans.gov/PLUSCounseling for details.

A new MPN and PLUS Counseling must be completed each year:

- if a request for supplemental PLUS loan requires an endorser
- if a new credit check is run by Direct Loans and the loan requires an endorser or is approved on appeal
