2012 Seattle University Law School Scholarship
Sponsored by Washington Women Lawyers, King County Chapter

Scholarship: The King County Chapter of Washington Women Lawyers (KCWWL) is pleased to provide a scholarship in the amount of $1,500.00 to one second year female law student at the Seattle University School of Law. The scholarship is intended to promote individualism and courage within the profession and to recognize women who have made a significant contribution to the community or have overcome great obstacles, including financial, in their lives.

Requirements: The scholarship recipient must be a second year female law student at the Seattle University School of Law. The recipient must also be a student member of KCWWL. Throughout the 2012-2013 academic school year, the recipient must commit ten (10) hours of service to KCWWL. These hours can be fulfilled in a variety of ways, such as attending KCWWL social events, assisting at KCWWL’s Judicial Appreciation Luncheon, or attending KCWWL Board of Directors’ meetings.

Application Materials: Please submit a resumé, first year law school transcript, and written statement. The written statement should address how the individual intends to promote individualism and/or courage within the legal profession and how she intends to contribute to the legal community in her future or what she believes are some of the most significant issues facing women in the legal profession and how she intends to affect change in the profession (Feel free to include examples from your past if applicable to the subject matter). The written statement should be no more than two pages.
