2013-2014
CONDITIONS OF AWARD
LAW SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIPS

• Law School scholarships, in the form of tuition remission, are made by the Committee on Admission and Student Financial Services. They are offered in addition to other financial aid for which a recipient may qualify, but may impact the levels and types of funding for which a student qualifies. Scholarship amounts are divided equally between Fall and Spring terms.

• A recipient must enroll as a student at the School of Law during the academic year for which the award is granted. There are no award deferments.

• A recipient must enroll for the number of credits considered a "full load" in his or her applicable program of study. In no case may a scholarship recipient enroll for fewer than 8 credits during fall or spring terms.

• Conditions of Award are non-negotiable.

• Scholarships awarded to entering students are renewable for the second and third years of study (for a maximum of three years) provided that each recipient maintains a law school grade point average in the upper 50 percent of the class (unless otherwise noted on the scholarship award letter).

• The Law School reserves the right to revoke a scholarship if a recipient is found to be in violation of the Academic Standards Code or the Student Code of Conduct.

• The Law School reserves the right to revoke a scholarship if a recipient is found to be currently in default on educational loans received at this or prior institutions of higher education.

• Conditions for receipt of scholarship aid include implicit permission by the recipient for the school to publish his or her name (and summary biographical data, as may be applicable) in catalogs, brochures, and related university literature. The Law School reserves the right to withdraw its offer of scholarship aid to any person failing to agree to these terms.

• Persons wishing for further clarification of the policies and procedures outlined here may contact the Office of Admission at 206.398.4200 or see our website: http://law.seattleu.edu/Office_and_Administration/Student_Financial_Services.xml

• Questions with regards to other forms of financial aid should be directed to Student Financial Services at 206.398.4250.