

Jessica Levin joined the Korematsu Center in December 2013 as a staff attorney. Jessica began her career as a law clerk to the Honorable Marlin J. Appelwick in the Washington State Court of Appeals, Division One. She then worked at Gordon Tilden Thomas & Cordell, LLP, where she practiced in a wide range of civil matters. She returned to Division One to clerk for the Honorable James R. Verellen after traveling around the world for three months. She has volunteered for the Northwest Immigrant Rights Project as a pro bono attorney in the Immigrant Families Advocacy Project, and she is a board member of two local non-profit organizations.

Jessica graduated magna cum laude from Seattle University School of Law, where she served as the editor in chief of the Seattle Journal for Social Justice.
