

WOMXN'S LAW CAUCUS

Seattle University School of Law

Kellye Testy Scholarship

Seattle University's Womxn's Law Caucus is offering a $1,000 scholarship to a 2L or 3L SU Law student who exemplifies the leadership qualities of the WLC's core values. The WLC is dedicated to the support and development of womxn as active and supportive members of the legal community. Through our network of legal professionals and students, the WLC encourages students to interact with their current and future professional peers for both personal and professional development. The WLC originally created this scholarship to recognize the outstanding professional and personal accomplishments of Kellye Y. Testy, the first woman appointed as dean by the Seattle University School of Law. Dean Testy served as dean from 2004 to 2009, and founded the Access to Justice Institute, the Korematsu Center for Law and Equality and other programs during her time.

Eligibility

Applicants must be a 2L or 3L, full or part-time Seattle University School of Law student in good standing. "Good standing" refers to an applicant's academic and disciplinary (if applicable) record.

Application Timeline

March 15, 2021: Application deadline (11:59 p.m.)

March 19, 2021: All applicants will be notified of the committee's decision via email.

March 22, 2021: The WLC will publicly announce the scholarship recipient at our annual Womxn of the Year celebration. If selected for the scholarship, attendance is mandatory.

Selection Process

The scholarship committee shall be composed of five or six members including the Dean of Student Affairs, a law school faculty member, law school alumni, and WLC co-presidents. Committee members will evaluate the application materials to select a scholarship recipient.

Application Details

All application materials must be submitted via the Dropbox account:

<https://www.dropbox.com/request/g0EaThnvuunDPzk3FKUI>

All committee members will keep application materials and applicant information confidential. A complete application must include:

Personal Statement: The WLC's core values are leadership and excellence in the advancement of womxn in the law. The personal statement should describe how you have demonstrated or plan to demonstrate one or both of these values in your academic career and/or through your work experience, as well as why you believe these values are important.

Résumé: Your resume should include your contact information: email, mailing address, and phone number.

Per IRS guidelines regarding prizes and awards, the law school will furnish recipients with a 1099-MISC, the IRS form used to report such miscellaneous income. Questions? Please feel free to contact the WLC Co-Presidents for more information:

Devin Pearsall: devinpearsal@seattleu.edu · Sydney Lopes: slopes@seattleu.edu