

KENNETH R. WING, J.D., M.P.H.

Born: November 25, 1946

Member of Bar: Massachusetts (admitted 1971)
California (admitted 1972)

Address: 5009 North Mildred
Tacoma, Washington 98407
(206) 759-2833

Professor
Seattle University
School of Law
900 Broadway
Seattle, WA 98122-4340
(206) 398-4031

EDUCATION:

M.P.H. Harvard School of Public Health
Boston, Massachusetts
June, 1972

J.D. Harvard Law School
Cambridge, Massachusetts
June, 1971

B.A. University of California
Santa Cruz, California
June, 1968
(Appointed Regents Scholar 1966-1967 and 1967-1968)

A.A. Foothill College
Los Altos, California
June, 1966
(Graduated first in class)

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE:

Seattle University, School of Law, Seattle, Washington, July 1990 to present

I am currently a Professor of Law (with tenure) at the School of Law. I teach "Torts," "Constitutional Law," "Health Law," and "Public Health Law" courses.

University of Washington, School of Public Health and Community Medicine, Seattle, Washington, July 1990 to August 2003

I was a Professor of Public Health Law (part-time) in the Department of Health Services. I taught "Health Law" and related courses.

The University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, July 1977-June 1990

I was Professor of Law (with a joint appointment) in the Department of Health Policy and Administration in the School of Public Health and in the School of Law.

My law school teaching included "Health, Policy, and Law" (an introductory course for law students), "Advanced Seminar on Health Law" (a research seminar for law students), Products Liability, and Torts (first year).

My public health school teaching responsibilities included "Health Law" (an introductory course for public health and medical students), and "Hospital Law" (a seminar for public health and law students).

Department of Health, State of California, December 1975 to June 1977

I was the Deputy Civil Rights Officer for the Department of Health. My primary responsibility was the enforcement of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and other anti-discrimination laws relating to equality in health service delivery, both in departmental programs and in services delivered by contractors and licensees. I also acted as legal adviser to the Director of the Department on special projects; these projects included the implementation of health planning programs, the recognition and enforcement of patients' rights, the development of state policy on the maintenance of public hospitals, and the enforcement of the free service and community service obligations of Hill-Burton hospitals.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon, September 1974 to June 1975

During the 1974-75 academic year, I taught under a joint appointment as an Assistant Professor of Health Education and as a Lecturer at the School of Law at the University of Oregon.

National Health Law Program, Los Angeles, California, August 1972 to July 1975

The National Health Law Program (NHELP), is a government funded legal services back-up center specializing in the health problems of indigent people. During my three years with the program, I spent one year as the assistant director and six months as the acting director; my responsibilities included supervising an office staff of approximately eight attorneys and ten-fifteen administrative personnel. As a staff attorney, I was responsible for law reform litigation in a variety of areas including access to health care, health planning activities, mental health, and patients' rights.

While I was teaching at the University of Oregon, I was retained on the NHELP staff on a part-time basis.

Executive Office of Human Services, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, 1971-1972

While attending graduate school, I was employed half-time as legal counsel to the Secretary of Human Services. My responsibilities included legal research, drafting departmental regulations and proposed legislation, and advising agency personnel.

Harvard Legal Aid Bureau, Cambridge, Massachusetts, 1969-1972

While attending law school, I worked as a student attorney for the HLAB. During my third year of law school, I organized and supervised a legal services program on the wards of Boston State Hospital. I handled a substantial number of civil commitments and other cases involving the civil legal problems of mental patients.

Institute of Politics, John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, Summer 1971

I was a research fellow on a Ford Foundation grant to study legal services programs in mental hospitals.

Institute of Behavior Sciences and Law, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, Summer of 1970

I received a Russell Sage Foundation Fellowship to attend a program of directed research and seminars in law, social sciences, and public policy.

OTHER ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

University of California, Los Angeles, appointment as lecturer in the School of Public Health, 1972-73, 1973-74, 1974-75; appointment as Lecturer in School of Law 1972-73 and 1973-74.

University of Southern California, appointment as Special Lecturer to teach health law courses in 1974-75 and 1975-76.

Duke University. I held an appointment as Lecturer in the Department of Health Administration from 1977 to 1989.

MAJOR CONSULTANT AND PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Center for Public Health Law, University of Louisville

I was appointed to the national advisory board in 2003 to 2007.

Health Law and Policy Institute, University of Houston Law Center

In January of 1998, I taught a two-week course (40 contact hours) for the law school at the University of Houston on "Public Health Law."

Northwest Center for Public Health Practice

I taught a one-week health law course in the Summer Institute of Public Health Practice each summer from 1991-96.

American College of Medical Group Administrators

I taught health law courses (on a two-day, five-hour-a-day-basis) as part of the ACMGP's Management Education Programs at various locations in the Western United States from 1990-96.

National Academy of Social Insurance

I was invited to join the NASI in 1991.

Office of Technology Assessment

In the summer of 1991, I prepared a report under contract to the OTA outlining the legal issues raised by the Medicaid rationing scheme proposed by the State of Oregon.

Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law

I was an associate editor for the journal from 1990-96. I have written several "Report From the Field" articles. (See publications.)

National Institute of Health, DHHS

In the Spring of 1989 I prepared a study for the NIH on the obligation of hospitals and other providers to provide services to AIDS patients.

American Society of Law and Medicine

I have been a speaker at the annual meeting/teachers' training conference of the ASLM each year since 1980.

In June of 1989, I was named Distinguished Health Law Teacher for 1989 by the ASLM.

American Association of Law Schools, Law and Medicine Section

I was the section chairman for the Law and Medicine Section for 1986 and a principal speaker at the annual meeting in January 1987.

Concern For Dying

I served on the Legal Advisors Board for CFD from 1985 - 1992. We advised the staff on legal matters, draft legislation, and provide legal assistance in individual cases involving patient autonomy.

Forum Committee on Health Law, American Bar Association

I was one of three judges for the student essay contest in 1981, 1982, and 1983.

Institute of Medicine, National Academy of Sciences

From February 1980 to January 1981, I served as legal counsel to the IOM committee on the delivery of health services to minorities and the handicapped.

Office of Civil Rights, DHHS

Between March 1980 and January 1981, I was an instructor in a series of workshops on civil rights investigations in hospitals held for OCR/HHS personnel in the ten regional HHS offices.

National Health Law Program

I served on the Board of Directors from 1979-1980.

Office of the Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation, DHEW

I served one year as legal consultant to the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation, Department of Health, Education and Welfare. During that year, I prepared a series of legal memoranda for departmental use and organized and edited at DHEW's request the series of papers which were published in the North Carolina Law Review symposium on health facility regulation. (See publications.)

National Legal Services Corporation

I have been a consultant to the Legal Services Corporation on several occasions and have conducted numerous workshops and training conferences on health law for legal services attorneys

Association of University Programs in Health Administration, Washington, D.C.

In 1975-76, I prepared a chapter on health law for a book co-authored by several experts from different disciplines developing the background and curriculum for health administration courses.

Center for Health Planning, School of Social Work, Boston University

During the summer of 1974, I assisted the Center in preparing materials and in conducting training conferences for state and regional health planning agencies.

East-Central Los Angeles Professional Standards Review Organization

I was one of five people that incorporated and organized the East-Central Los Angeles PSRO. I also served on the board of directors and as legal counsel during the planning phase of the PSRO.

BOOKS

K. Wing, G. Annas, W. Mariner, & D. Strouse, Public Health Law (LexisNexis 2007) (793 pages)

K. Wing, G. Annas, W. Mariner, & D. Strouse, Public Health Law: Teacher's Manual (2007) (lexisNexis 100 pages)

K. Wing & M. Jacobs, The Law and American Health Care (2d ed. 2002; published as an e-book on TWEN)

K. Wing, M. Jacobs and P. Kuszler, The Law and American Health Care (Aspen Law & Business 1998) (1250 pages).

K. Wing, M. Jacobs and P. Kuszler, The Law and American Health Care: Teacher's Manual (Aspen Law & Business 1998) (113 pages).

K. Wing & B. Gilbert, The Law and the Public's Health (7th ed., Health Admin. Press 2007) (390 pages) (Also 75 page teacher's manual).

K. Wing & B. Gilbert, The Law and the Public's Health: Supplemental Cases (available online through Health Admin. Press 2007).

G. Annas, R. Rosenblatt, S. Law, & K. Wing, American Health Law (Little, Brown Inc. 1989) (Also 157 page teacher's manual).

LAW REVIEW ARTICLES

Wing and Gordie, Linking Low-Income Washingtonians With Health Care Financing Arrangements, 26 Seattle U. L. Rev. 897 (2003).

Wing, Health Policy in the 1980's, 36 Case Western L. Rev. 608 (1987).

Wing and Campbell, The Emergency Room Admission: How Far Does the Open Door Go?, 62 U. Det. L. Rev. 119 (1985).

Wing, North Carolina's Medicaid Program: The Effects of the Reagan-Era Budget Reductions, 14 N.C. Cent. L. Rev. 313 (1984).

Wing, The Impact of Reagan-Era Politics on the Federal Medicaid Program, 33 Cath. U.L. Rev. 1 (1983).

Wing, The Community Service Obligation of Hill-Burton Hospitals, 23 B.C.L. Rev. 577 (1982).

I organized and edited the North Carolina Law Review Symposium issue on health facility regulation published in November 1979. I co-authored two articles in that issue:

Wing and Craige, Health Care Regulation: Dilemma of a Partially Developed Public Policy, 57 N.C.L. Rev. 1163 (1979).

Wing and Silton, Constitutional Authority for Extending Federal Control Over the Delivery of Health Care, 57 N.C.L. Rev. 1423 (1979).

Wing, Title VI and Health Facilities: Forms Without Substance, 30 Hastings L.J. 127 (1978). Reviewed at 5 Am. J.L. & Med. 45 (1979).

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

Wing, The Fed's Role in Public Health Emergencies, 15 Lahey Clinic J. of Medical Ethics 4 (2008).

Wing, Letter to the Editor of Health Matrix, 14 Health Matrix 237 (2004).

Wing, Policy Choices and Model Acts: Preparing For the Next Public Health Emergency, 13 Health Matrix 71 (2003).

Wing, Health Care Reform in the Year 2000: The View From the Front of the Classroom, 26 Am. J. Law & Med. 277 (2000).

Wing, Principles and Principals of the Abortion Compromise, 18 J. Health Politics, Policy & Law 967 (1993).

Wing, The Right to Health Care in the United States, 2 Annals of Health Law 601 (1993).

Wing, The Economic and Policy Environment of Health Care, a chapter in Health Care Corporate Law (M. Hall, ed. 1993). (Updated 1994 and 1995.)

Wing, Speech, Privacy, and the Power of the Purse: Lessons from the Abortion "Gag Rule" case, 17 J. Health Politics, Policy & Law 163 (1992).

Wing, Preface, 14 U. Puget Sound L. Rev. 447 (1991).

Wing, The Supreme Court's Spring Term: Abortion, the Right to Die, and the Decline of Privacy Rights, 15 J. Health Politics, Policy & Law 919 (1990).

Wing, Introduction, 26 Houston L. Rev. 1 (1989).

Wing, Constitutional Protection of Sexual Privacy in the 1980s: What is Big Brother Doing in the Bedroom?, 76 Am. J. Pub. Health 201 (1986).

Wing, Medicare and President Reagan's Second Term, 75 Am. J. Pub. Health 782 (1985).

Wing, The Emerging Relevance of Antitrust Laws to the Delivery of Health Care, 74 Am. J. Pub. Health 407 (1985).

Wing, Recent Amendments to the Medicaid Program: Political Implications, 74 Am. J. Pub. Health 83 (1984).

Legal Advisers Committee, Concern for Dying, The Right to Refuse Treatment: A Model Act, 73 Am. J. Pub. Health 918 (1983).

Wing, Legal Mechanisms for Civil Rights Enforcement, a chapter in Institute of Medicine, Health Care in A Context of Civil Rights (1981).

Wing, Science and Law: A Muddled Interface, a chapter in P. Bateson and P. Klopfer, Ethology: Advantages of Diversity (Plenum 1981).

Wing and Rose, Health Facilities and the Enforcement of Civil Rights, a chapter in R. Roemer and G. McKray, Legal Aspects of Health Policy (Greenwood 1980).

Wing, The Right to Refuse Treatment: Legal Issues, 5 Bull. Amer. Acad. of Psychiatry & L. 15 (1977).

Wing and Schneider, The National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974: Implications for the Poor, 9 Clearinghouse Rev. 683 (1976)

Butler, Axelrod, Price and Wing, Representation of Clients in Matters Relating to Hospital Bills, 8 Clearinghouse Rev. 541 (1974).

Wing and Carman, Mental Commitment Cases of 1971-72 Supreme Court Term, 6 Clearinghouse Rev. 659 (1973).